1	7221 Comp Group	ID Ops Br	7 March 1949	1. Mr. MAIR, a member of this organization, has made two trips to ROME and ATHENS travelling as an American Captain and accompanied by an officer of this organization. 2. The orders being issued now state that, civilian clothes will be worn and that the individual will have a passport in his possession. 3. Request that this office be informed whether we can obtain an American passport for Mr. MAIR to use on his travel to ROME and ATHENS. Mr. MAIR will be accompanied by an officer of this organization while on these travels. 4. A trip to Italy will be necessary in about three weeks and a trip to ATHENS in about two months. The passport is necessary on these travels for the following reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Orders issued as stated in paragraph 2 above</li> <li>b. Because of his last two trips subject is known to the police as an US Army Captain, he therefore cannot travel as a German civilian.</li> <li>c. No other person of this organization could replace Mr. MAIR.</li> </ul>
